Perry Township.

We are glad to learn that the whole Democratic ticket in "Old Perry" was elected except the candidate for Treasurer, who, we regret to say, was beaten two votes. The following is the ticket elected:

Trustees.—J. Anderson, C. Genter and G.
May.

Clerk.—S. Heiler.

Constable.—J. Weaver.

Assessor.—J. D. Hairy.

Van Buren Township Renewed!—The whole Democratic ticket was elected to Van Buren Township, on Monday, by an average of 40 majority. That will do for Van Buren. She can now take high position in the Democratic ranks.

MERCANTILE TALKING.—The card of Mr. I. N.
Winter, Merchant Tailor, will be found in another column. He is a first class workman, prepared to fill orders for work promptly, and warrants to give his customers satisfaction. We know Mr. W. to be a gentleman in his intercourse with society, and we can recommend him to our patrons. We particularly desire that the public give him a trial.

CL Capt. De Ros is now organizing a second class of the Light Guard Armory. The most of his first class are taking a second course.
This speaks highly for the Captain. He will take no more scholars after Saturday next.

Mrs. A. H. TUCKER'S MILLINERY.—The Spring opening of this large and fashionable establishment is taking place to day. We stepped in a moment, but could see nothing for the multitude of beautiful ladies that were ahead of us, and the endless variety of pretty bonnets that met us at every turn. We even saw through the rooms, but to undertake a description of all the elegance we witnessed would be vain. Suffice it, Mrs. T. is just the lady who knows what suits the fashionable taste, and those who need anything in this department of goods, will find her establishment decidedly a pleasant place to deal.

Mr. Andrew Hall has a "card" in this morning's Gazette in which he accuses the citizens of Dayton that his motives in appearing on Monday last as a candidate for City Clerk were honorable, and that his action was based upon the law, as he understood it. He waves all claim to the Clerkship, while he conceives that, under the practice of other cities, in the same regard, he is entitled to that position.
The people will respect his motives, and approve his decision, under the peculiar circumstances of the case.

Our Lady readers will notice by an advertisement in another column that Mrs. Howard, No. 113, Main St., near Fourth, has received her spring styles of Millinery goods, etc., and as her stock is full, and her variety as great as can be found, and her styles unsurpassed, she confidently invites the ladies of Dayton to call, at any time, and select what will please them. She can suit any taste, both in quality and price.

The Indiana chap who clips out "news items," original and select, without looking at them, was not exactly caught by the trap we set for him recently. He clipped the items last week, as usual, however, "trap" and all; but the d—l, when putting them in type, overhauled the thing, and showed the catch to the editor, who became indignant, and indignantly let us know his perils:

"The Empire needn't make a fuss about anybody stealing from it. It steals a good deal from other papers."

Yes, that is true, Billy; but we never steal any thing from your weekly mélange of stale hash.

WOODLAND CEMETERY.—The Journal has the following table of interments at Woodland Cemetery, for the month of March:

The people of Dayton are urging the construction of the Mexican and Mississippian. Valley Railroad, which is proposed on a line from Union City to Logansport. The Daytonians think it would increase the trade of their city by giving them an outlet to several of the counties of Indiana not now reached by railroads. They propose the building of this line as an extension of the Greenville and Miami Road, leading from Dayton to Union—Engineer.

That the extension of the G. & M. Road would be a great benefit to Dayton we have no doubt, and we hope measures will at once be taken by our capitalists to aid in the completion of the road, and thereby secure the benefit.
If we are at all opposed, we would say that an investment in the G. & M. V. R. would be as good as any other stock investment that could be made by our citizens.

It is reported that the prisoners in the Jail have, by some means, obtained a false key; and refusing to give it up, we learn that Sheriff Miller has put them on very scant diet and cell limits, in order to bring them to terms.
They will doubtless give in, when they are sufficiently punished.

Persons who are entitled to naturalization papers will best be advised that they can procure them in the Probate Court. Don't forget this, and pass the word to your friends.

John G. Miller, Esq., was elected Mayor of Sandusky on Monday last. Mr. M. is an able and accomplished gentleman, and a National Democrat.

Connection.—We stated on Tuesday that P.
C. Holliday was elected Assessor in the 3d Ward. Our information was incorrect. Mr. P.
Leonhardt, his competitor, was elected by a majority of 33 votes.

We did not believe that our neighbor of the Gazette intentionally misrepresented the vote of Mr. Turner; but Mr. T.'s friends thought the effort was made to cause the fall of Mr. D. at the expense of Mr. T. We are satisfied that such was not the case.

A greasy thief last night broke into the cellar of Mr. Benjamin Monday, corner of 6th and Jefferson streets, and stole a can of lard.

The New York Post is running a tilt with "wit and wisdom" Frontiers, of the Federal. It contains a daily feature headed "Post-logs," which is intended to be very sharp.
Some of the logs are very good; but it is shocking to think how much trash the followers use with a few grains of wheat.

Correspondence from the North.

St. Mary, April 6th, 1899.

FRANKLIN CLARK, and REYNOLD I have been residing in the vicinity of this place for the past week, the time being principally occupied as hennepin's follower of Rimrod, with moderate success, to the detriment of various species of ducks, etc., at this time not prohibited by our game laws.

The inhabitants of this region have been frequently denominated "swamp angels," but now, owing to the improved appearance of them, they indignantly decline any such distinguished appellations. The title is superfluous, as ditching and drainage has caused swamps to disappear, and in their stead is found a most desirable location for farming pursuits.

A number of individuals, with a desire to increase their worldly goods, have made preparations and commenced the cultivation of bacco, and is excitedly talked of in the town circles.

The banks of the reservoir, near the town are in a dangerous condition, owing to the prevailing high winds on such a large body of water, and continued washing of the waves. It would be rather a cold bath for St. Mary's, should the bank break, letting loose 16,000 acres of water. Workmen are engaged in making breakwaters of timber to prevent such an occurrence.

Very little can be said of the improvement in the town, as it has fallen behind his rival Wapakoneta, since the completion of the Dayton & Michigan road through the latter place, which is a great advantage, of course. However, the people of St. Mary's are looking up a little at the present progress of the Fremont and Indiana railways, which is located to run through this place, where much stock was taken several years ago.

The farmers are in good spirits with the favorable appearance of their grain. Many are now putting in their oats.

Persons from the Laramie Reservoir, report bass fishing good, the past week, considering the unfavorable windy weather. By the first of May, in your annual visit, you can speak for yourself of this exciting sport and pastime.

Yours, &c., C. P. D.

The Nashville Union states that a man named James R. Terrell, has just completed his fifth term in the Tennessee penitentiary, having passed twenty-three of the last twenty-seven years of his life in that institution. He is now about sixty years of age. The crime of which he was convicted was, in every instance, larceny; and he confesses that he was guilty every time, but the last. His oldest son, who is treading in the same footsteps—or rather going ahead of his father, was a few months ago, sentenced to the same prison for twenty-one years. "Low thieving," as the Plain Dealer would say, runs in that family, just as gentle, aristocratic thieving, runs in other families. In either case it is a weakness; in the former it is a crime.
